PRIVACY ACT ISSUANCES

concerning access to or correction of records, are promulgated in the CIA rules section of the Federal Register.

Record source categories: The source of biographic information is the Office of Security or official correspondence notifying Office of Communications of a change in the individual's status.

Employee.

CIA-49

System name: Directorate of Operations Records System.

System location:

Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Individuals who are of foreign intelligence or foreign counterintelligence interest to the CIA, either because of their actual, apparent, or potential association with foreign intelligence or foreign counterintelligence activities, or because they are of actual or potential use to CIA.

Categories of records in the system: Categories of records include administrative, management and policy, personality, operational, and impersonal subjects based primarily on foreign intelligence and foreign counterintelligence reports.

Authority for maintenance of the system: National Security Act of 1947, as Amended—Public Law 80-253.

Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as Amended—Public Law 81-110.

Section 506(a), Federal Records Act of 1950 (44 U.S.C., Section 3101).

Immigration and Nationality Act, as Amended—Public Law 82-414.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: To provide information within CIA and to selected Federal agencies and military departments for the conduct of foreign intelligence operations.

To provide information within CIA and to the FBI, other selected Federal agencies, and military departments for the conduct of foreign counterintelligence operations.

To conduct national Agency name checks for other agencies as required by National Security Council Directive and the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 in the interest of the security of the United States.

To provide information to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a "routine use" to a Federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an Agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

To provide information to U.S. and, through established liaison channels, selected foreign government agencies in national security or criminal cases.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Paper, microforms, and magnetic media.

Retrievability: By name.

Safeguards: Strict controls have been imposed to minimize the risk of compromising information held. Employees are allowed access to the index and files only after undergoing special training. There are degrees of compartmentation which are designed to limit access to information on a strict "need-to-know" basis. Records are kept of each disclosure of a record to another agency as required by this act.

Retention and disposal: Retention is based on approved records disposition schedules. Destruction is by pulping, degaussing, or burning.

System manager(s) and address:

Chief, Information Services Staff, DDO
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505.

Notification procedure: Individuals seeking to learn if this system of records contains information about them should direct their inquiry to:

Information and Privacy Coordinator
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505.

Identification requirements are specified in the CIA rules published in the Federal Register (32 CFR 1901.13). Individuals must comply with these rules.

Record access procedures: Request from individuals should be addressed as indicated in the notification section above.

Contesting record procedures: The Central Intelligence Agency's regulations for access to individual records, for disputing the contents thereof, and for appealing an initial determination by CIA concerning access to or correction of records, are promulgated in the CIA rules section of the Federal Register.

Record source categories: Other U.S. agencies and organizations.

Foreign sources and individuals.

Predecessor organizations.

Overt publications.

Private citizens.

State and local agencies.
